

[8]

RETIEF STEENKAMP

Age: 27, Current Club:
Cape Unicorns
Polocrosse Club

Brief history of your polocrosse career:

Retief has represented his province as well as his club at all levels. He made his debut for South Africa in 2005 for the U14 team and since then has represented SA at all levels and recently returned from the 2019 World Cup.

[8]

MATT DAVISON

Age: 24, Current Club:
Albury Holbrook
Polocrosse Club; Australia

Brief history of your polocrosse career:

Matt was born in Queensland and started playing polocrosse from a young age of 6 years. Matt has been part of the Australian mens squad the past few years, he's played many nationals for Queensland and New South Wales and has recently been the winners of the New Zealand High Goal.

[9]

JIMMY GRILLS

Age: 24, Current Club:
Albury Holbrook
Polocrosse Club; Australia

Brief history of your polocrosse career:

Jimmy came from a polocrosse family and started playing at the age of 6 years. He's played in zone and state tournaments since then. He was lucky to enough to bring back a trophy from his first state champs and there's been no looking back since. He recently played in the 2019 World Cup in Australia and are currently world champions!

[9]

JAN-ALBERT STEENKAMP

Age: 30, Current Club:
Cape Unicorns
Polocrosse Club

Brief history of your polocrosse career:

Jannie started playing polocrosse at the age of 13 years and has represented South Africa in all age groups. Jannie has won SA Champs 6 times at an open level, won Inter-provincials 5 times at an open level. He was first reserve for the 2007 World Cup, played in the 2011 World Cup which they won together with the 2015 World Cup. Jannie captained the Men's side that beat Australia in 2017 in Australia and captained the recent SA team at the 2019 World Cup in Australia.

[5]

CALEY HIGGS

Age: 22, Current Club:
Richmond Polocrosse Club

Brief history of your polocrosse career:

Caley has been representing South Africa at all age groups. Caley's dad played polocrosse, she started playing when she was 6 years old. She has been playing her whole life and plans on playing for as long as she can.

[5]

JACQUIE MINNAAR

Age: 19, Current Club:
Nyati Polocrosse Club

Brief history of your polocrosse career:

Jacquie started playing at the age of 6 years. Her parents both played and her mom played in the 2003 World Cup. With Jacquie's parents playing, polocrosse used to be something that we all used to do as a family, and has been a growing passion to play this sport. Jacquie played her first international when she was 11 years old in an U14 team. Since then she has played in 8 internationals, and has recently returned from the 2019 World Cup in Australia.

[6]

NATALIE MACLARTY

Age: 23, Current Club:
Nyati Polocrosse Club

Brief history of your polocrosse career:

Natalie was brought to playing polocrosse through her love for horses, her family and the need for speed. Natalie started playing polocrosse at the age of 12, after a successful career in pony riders. Natalie loves polocrosse because she's passionate about horses and secondly because it's an action packed equestrian discipline involving a racquet and ball that requires a high level of skill, horsemanship and dedication to play at a top level.

[5]

LEIGH HIGGS

Age: 25, Current Club:
Shongweni Polocrosse Club

Brief history of your polocrosse career:

Leigh first started playing around the age of 6 years, she's been selected to represent provincial and international teams at all levels. Her first international was in 2007 and her most recent was the 2019 Adina World Cup in Australia.